

Let it Blow: Wind Erosion in the Desert
Teacher Answer Key

Edpuzzle Question 1.

What is wind erosion?

Soil being worn away and moved from one place to another by wind.

Ice cream being moved from a bowl to your mouth with a spoon.

Something that provides shelter or protection from the wind.

Answer: Soil being worn away and moved from one place to another by wind

Edpuzzle Question 2.

Students are asked to get their supplies and select "I am ready" to continue the video.

Edpuzzle Question 3.

My dust collector collected ____ dust pieces in the grassland desert trial. Count the dust pieces and type the number in the provided space.

Answer: Open ended question and answers will vary.

Edpuzzle Question 4.

My dust collector collected ____ dust pieces in the shrubland desert trial. Count the dust pieces and type the number in the provided space.

Was this more, less, or the same amount of dust collected than in the grassland trial? Type your answer in the provided space.

Answers: Open ended questions and answers will vary.

Edpuzzle Question 5.

My dust collector collected ____ dust pieces in the human-cleared ground cover trial. Count the dust pieces and type the number in the provided space.

Which trial collected the most dust? The grassland, shrubland, or human-cleared trial? Type your answer in the space provided.

Answers: Open ended questions and answers will vary.